My Literature For Peace

[After Francisco Gomes de Matos]

<Home<

What is my literature for peace?

Feelings, forms, functions, and rhythms;

Ideas, genres, texts, diction, and styles;

Persons, personas, personifications, plots, imagery, and symbols

In aesthetic, creative and challenging contexts.

Meanings, metrics, moods, metaphors, similes, and alliterations;

Prose, poetry, psalms, proverbs, and themes;

Writers, poets, critics, and editors;

Imaginatively what can they achieve?

Their attitudes, beliefs, expectations, and sentiments

Can be focused on facts, fiction, realism, or surrealism;

Voiced through epics, epiphanies, essays, short stories, novels, and travelogues

In simple or hybrid types of discourse.

In verses, visions, voices, stanzas, and dreams,
New ways to be learned
In songs, sonnets, sijos, haikus, odes, limericks, and ballads;
Ironic touches needed.

Let's declare a noble universal right
Manifested by creative imagination:
One of sharing Literature, so sublimely caring,
Mirrored in the New Kingdom.
